

For the Associates (Keyapei Providers)

Welcome to Keyapei.com – where you become the WISH granters for our guests. As a Keyapei Associate, you have the distinct privilege of being listed among some of the highest-quality, certified business providers on the Internet. You truly are among good company, making you and your goods or services a sought after commodity.

As a Keyapei Associate, you have the ability to create a fabulous portfolio page where you can list your certificates and licenses, which puts you and your skills ahead of the average freelancer. There is no paid ranking for access to work like many other outsourcing sites, so you get to sell your services competitively among your peers. Pay close attention to how and what you list on your portfolio pages – this is how you will sell yourself and your product the prospective consumers. Take the time to showcase ALL that you can do and the proof that you can do it BETTER than your peers.

So how can YOU stand out among some of the best talent out there? All Associates get free advertising on the Keyapei.com Billboard, so take advantage of it to promote what's unique about you and your business. We also offer our Associates discounted rates for advertisements in our online magazine, so you can get your name out there and be “front-of-mind” to interested consumers.

Keyapei.com hosts a forum where we will allow you to give out friendly advice, write articles and promote your business. We want you to write articles about services, computing, contracting, health services, business, SEO, writing, freelancing, and so forth. By making the site a resource for information as well as a place to trade goods and services, more consumers will link to Keyapei.com. You get instant access to your signature promotion options with your membership. There are no limits to posting, although you will be allotted twenty posts to start.

As a Keyapei.com Associate, you have the ability to offer your goods and services FREE for the first three months. Once you reach three months, our service fee is lower than any other outsourcing site. We offer our associates and guests several billing options, making transactions easier and more secure. Our highly protected Escrow source protects you as the seller from fraud or non-payment. After all, the bottom line of business is counted in dollars and sense.

At Keyapei.com, we understand that time is money – so we take all the time out of your search by allowing consumers to create a specific and personalized WISH LIST (link to wish list page) of products and services they require, as well as to upload images of their needs to assist you in your quotations and decision to take on a particular job.

When a guest creates a WISH LIST in your provider category, you will receive an email alert with the project and contact information of the prospective client. It is up to you to decide if you have the skills or product required, giving you the ability to choose among the work offered to pick those projects that best suit your skills, abilities and schedule. There is no blind bidding – only direct contact between two interested parties. Once you sign on for a project, the client can assess your profile and skills and the project can begin.

To help grow your business and skill set, Kepapei.com offers discounts on business software, books and other tools of your trade through our online store. Our staff includes over one-hundred affiliates that are working the Internet to drive traffic to you and your business. Once your client base increases and we see your business is growing, you can receive promotional items from Keyapei.com for your success.
